

Reading Matters on the road

Reading Matters, Australia's premier young adult literature event, is taking the show on the road with two incredible YA authors visiting regional Victoria for their very first time.

The Centre for Youth Literature and Goldfields Libraries are delighted to present award-winning and New York Times bestselling author Laurie Halse Anderson, with renowned Australian TV scriptwriter and debut YA novelist, Clare Atkins.

Come along for this once-off opportunity to meet the authors of the books you love to read.
